I have been informed of the nature, risks, and possible complications and consequences of permanent skin pigmentation. I understand the permanent skin pigmentation procedure carries with it known and unknown complications and consequences associated with this type of cosmetic procedure, including but not limited to: infection, allergic reaction, scarring, inconsistent color, and spreading, fanning or fading of pigments. I understand the actual color of the pigment may be modified slightly, due to the tone and color of my skin. I fully understand this is a tattoo process and therefore not an exact science, but an art. I request the microblading procedure and accept the permanence of the procedure as well as the possible complications and consequences of the said procedure. I understand that while this is sometimes referred to as semi-permanent in nature, due to each individual's reaction to pigment, the length of time pigment is present cannot be guaranteed. In some cases, pigment will be permanent.
